HEBER FOURTH WARD

The Heber Fourth Ward came into being on April 13, 1947 when the Third Ward was divided, and Bishop J. Linden Chapman was sustained to lead the new ecclesiastical unit. Chosen as counselors were Almon G. Clegg and Verd Murdock. Jay O. Johnson was ward clerk. Later Vestus Mahoney was sustained as second counselor to replace Verd Murdock who moved away. Max Lawrence served also as an assistant ward clerk.

For eight years after the creation of the ward, members shared the Third Ward meeting house. However, during those eight years they were busily working to raise funds for construction of their own building.

Work on the new Fourth Ward Chapel began in April of 1953 on property that had been donated to the ward by the Bert T. Coleman family. The site was the corner of Fifth South and Second West.

Working together, the members of the ward strove diligently to raise the $131,853.14 cost of the building. By entertainment events there was raised $8,965.58, and by direct donation, $39,176.96, making a total cash contribution of $48,142.50. Donated labor amounted to 12,191 hours, valued at $17,784.03. Cash for paid labor totaled $15,610.98, and materials cost $80,674.10.

One organization, the Relief Society, was given special commendation by the bishopric for their efforts in the building fund. By sales of quilts, through bazaars and special banquets they raised a total of $2,500 for the new chapel.

The new building was completed, paid for and ready for dedication

Trase Dwayne Watson

Trase Dwayne Watson has been called to serve in the Louisiana Baton Rouge Mission. Trase is excited for his call to serve and will be representing the Heber Fifth Ward in the mission field.

His Farewell service will be held this Sunday, Jan. 29 at 2:15 p.m. The chapel is on 200 West and 200 North.

Trase graduated from Pine View High School in St. George, where he was a Sterling Scholar in 1988. He is the son of Dwayne and Teddie Watson, and is eldest of their six children. His grandparents are John and Qu'Appelle Gibbons, of St. George, and Maurice and Yvonne Cummings Miller, who are formerly of Heber City. His grandparents will be present at the Farewell, and the family wish to invite their relatives and friends to attend.
